

Constitution Day

On September 17, 1787, the U.S. Constitution was signed by members of the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The U.S. Constitution serves as the overarching law of the United States of America. It also serves as the framework for the United States government.

September 17th of each year has been designated as Constitution Day to commemorate the signing of the Constitution and to encourage all citizens to celebrate the freedom created for the people of our nation.

Additional information about the U.S. Constitution may be found by visiting the following resources:

Constitution Day (<http://constitutionday.com/>)

National Constitution Center (<http://constitutioncenter.org/>)